
THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. 2. SPOUTSPRING, KY., FEB. 6, 1897. NO. 3.

We failed to get a report of Grant Elkins' sale in time for publication last week. The following is a report furnished us by W. E. Heflin, clerk of the sale: 1 yoke plain oxen, $59.00; 3 600 lb., $17.50 per head; 1 cow, $22.50; horses, from $10. to $35. per head; 1 pair 3-year old mules, $99.00; 1 bunch of 75-lb. shoats brought 3cts.; 1 bunch, weight about 35 lbs., $1.15 per head; corn in crib sold at from $1.40 to $1.65 per barrel; corn fodder, 7 cents per shock. H. R. Watts, of Winchester, was the auctioneer.

Special Session.

A State officer has said that Governor Bradley had decided to call a session of the Legislature for March 8, and that the call would be issued Feb. 16. The Governor still refuses to talk.

John Rowland, a negro farm hand, criminally assaulted the five year old daughter of John Allecock Monday, near Mayfield. The wretch is yet at large, and maddened citizens are scouring the the country in search for him.

Chairman, W. G. Patrick, has called a Mass Convention of the People's Party to meet in the Court House in Irvin, Monday, Feb 22, to select candidates for the various County offices.

While Mrs. Patrick was out calling on friends in town last Saturday evening, their house caught fire and was making to destruction when Mr. Patrick happened to go into the house and made the discovery. Mrs. Patrick, before going out hung a rug which was damp, to the fire to dry; the rug caught fire and burnt; a right smart hole was burned in the floor, and a chair was burned, which covers the damage.

Tommy Crow was in town yesterday buying household supplies. When he stoped in our office for a civil chat he told us he had at last got him a house-keeper, and that he wanted to subscribe for the Times to brighten his home. At once we arose and extended congratulations and told him were glad to learn of his good luck. We then asked him whom he had married and when he got married, when he told us that he and his friend Tom Snowden were just batching, and that he was yet unmarried.
